

Joelle L. Martinez

President & CEO

Latino Leadership Institute (LLI)

Joelle L. Martinez is a nationally recognized executive, strategist, speaker, and facilitator. A visionary leader, Joelle dedicates her life to helping cross-sector leaders realize their individual potential as well as the economic and social opportunities presented by an increasingly diverse U.S. populace.

RETHINKING

DIVERSITY EQUITY & INCLUSION

Diversity, equity, and inclusion training have remained largely unchanged for more than a generation. In this groundbreaking presentation, discover the evolution of DEI in the workplace and learn the science behind our unconscious thinking habits and how they may interfere with realizing diversity and inclusion goals. Explore LLI's S.E.A.T. Model, a results-driven approach to engage in inclusive behaviors that will move your organization forward.

Keynote Presentation Time: 45-minutes with 10-minute Q&A

Email info@latinoslead.org for more information.

"Joelle's keynote, 'Rethinking DEI,' is essential for any organization serious about transforming its diversity, equity, and inclusion efforts. Through a powerful blend of scientific research and real-world examples, Joelle provides actionable insights that are both engaging and immediately applicable. Known for her dynamic speaking style, she captivates audiences from start to finish, inspiring them to think differently and drive meaningful change."

Brittany Morris Saunders
President & CEO
Colorado Technology Association

